

REGULATORY APPROVAL IN RUSSIA

October 26, 2017 – As per our announcement dated August 9, 2017, it had been shared with the public that our Company and AB InBev reached a non-binding agreement regarding a 50:50 merger of Anadolu Efes' and AB InBev's existing Russia and Ukraine businesses and that the parties will be working towards reaching a binding agreement following a satisfactory due diligence process and subject to regulatory approvals in Russia and Ukraine. As required legally, the approval of Federal Antimonopoly Service of the Russian Federation has been obtained on October 26, 2017 (today) while the approval process in Ukraine is still underway. Our Company and AB InBev are to continue operating in Russia as two separate entities until the transaction is finalized upon obtaining the legal approvals and completion of the due diligence process. Further developments will be duly announced.
