

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION AND PROCESSING POLICY OF ANADOLU EFES BİRACILIK VE MALT SANAYİİ A.Ş.

1. Purpose and Scope

Anadolu Efes Biracılık ve Malt Sanayii Anonim Şirketi (“Efes” or the “Company”) uses its best endeavours to comply with all applicable legislation with respect to the processing and protection of personal data.

Within the frame of the Personal Data Protection and Processing Policy of Anadolu Efes Biracılık ve Malt Sanayii Anonim Şirketi (the “Policy”), the principles which are adopted in the course of personal data processing activities conducted by Efes are set forth.

With the Policy, the sustainability of the “principle of performing the business activities of Efes in a transparent manner” is targeted. Within this scope, the essential principles adopted for the compliance of the data processing activities by Efes with the regulations provided in the 6698 numbered Personal Data Protection Law (the “Law”) are determined and the practices carried out by Efes are highlighted.

The Policy is applicable to real persons whose personal data are processed by Efes through automated means or non-automated ways on condition of being a part of any data recording system and the considerations related to the protection of personal data of Efes employees are separately regulated in the “Personal Data Protection and Processing Policy for the Employees of Anadolu Efes Biracılık ve Malt Sanayii Anonim Şirketi”.

2. Principles of the Policy

2.1 General Principles

The Policy is published in the website of Efes (<https://www.anadoluefes.com/>) in an accessible manner by data subjects. In parallel with any amendments and renewals in the legislation, the revisions to be made in the Policy shall be made accessible so that data subjects can easily review them.

In case of a conflict between the applicable legislation concerning personal data protection and processing and this Policy, Efes agrees that the legislation in force shall be applied.

2.2 Groups of Persons within the Scope of the Policy

The data subject groups who are covered by this Policy and whose personal data are processed by Efes are as follows:

- Prospective Employees
The persons who have not enter into a service agreement with Efes, but are subjected to an assessment process by Efes for this purpose.
- Authorized Officers and Employees of Business Partners
Real person authorized officers, shareholders and employees of the organizations with whom Efes is in a business relationship.
- Company Visitors
Real persons who visit Efes’s buildings or the websites operated by Efes.

- Other Real Persons

All real persons who are not covered by the Personal Data Protection and Processing Policy for the Employees of Anadolu Efes Biracılık ve Malt Sanayii Anonim Şirketi.

3. Finalization of the Requests of Personal Data Subjects

In the event that data subjects communicate their requests concerning their personal data to our Company in writing, Efes manages the required processes in its capacity as the data controller in accordance with article 13 of the Law to ensure the finalization of such request as soon as possible and within not later than thirty (30) days depending on the nature of the request.

For the purpose of ensuring data security, Efes might request information to verify if any applicant is the owner of the personal data subjected to the application. Our Company might also direct any question to a personal data subject with regard to his/her application in order to ensure the finalization of the application in compliance with the request.

In case that an application made by a data subject is likely to prevent the rights and freedoms of other persons, requires disproportionate effort or otherwise the data is a publicly available data, the request shall be able to be rejected by Efes with the explanation of the justification thereof.

3.1 Rights of Personal Data Subjects

According to article 11 of the Law, you can refer to our Company and make a request about the following issues:

- (1) Learning whether your personal data are processed or not,
- (2) Requesting information about the processing activity if your personal data have been processed,
- (3) Learning the purpose of processing of your personal data and whether these data are used suitably for this purpose,
- (4) Knowing any third parties in Turkey or abroad to whom your personal data are transferred,
- (5) Requesting the correction of your personal data if they are processed incompletely or incorrectly and asking the notification of such correction to the third parties to whom your personal data are transferred within this scope,
- (6) Requesting the deletion or destruction of your personal data and asking the notification of such deletion or destruction to the third parties to whom your personal data are transferred within this scope in the event that the reasons requiring the processing of your personal data disappear in terms of purpose, duration and legitimacy although they have been processed in compliance with the Law and other applicable legislations,
- (7) Raising an objection against any result to your disadvantage which is obtained by way of analysis of the processed data exclusively through automatic systems,
- (8) Requesting the indemnification of any loss if you incur a loss due to unlawful processing of your data.

3.2 The Situations Beyond the Rights of Personal Data Subjects as Required by the Legislation

Pursuant to article 28 of the Law, personal data subjects shall not be able to claim any right in terms of the following situations on the grounds that the situations below are not included in the scope of the

6.2 Personal Data Processing Purposes and Legal Reasons

Personal data are processed by Efes for the following purposes in compliance with the data processing conditions and principles. The existence of the purposes below may vary specific to each data subject.

Efes processes personal data by obtaining the explicit consent of the subject in accordance with the Law or limited to the purposes and conditions within the personal data processing conditions specified in paragraph 2 of Article 5 and paragraph 3 of Article 6 of the Law.

Therefore, the explicit consent of the personal data subject is only one of the legal grounds that make it possible to process personal data in accordance with the law. The basis of personal data processing activity may be only one of the following conditions, or more than one of these conditions may be the basis of the same personal data processing activity.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION AND PROCESSING POLICY OF ANADOLU EFES BİRACILIK VE MALT SANAYİİ A.Ş.

One of the conditions for processing personal data is the explicit consent of the data subject. The explicit consent of the personal data subject must be related to a specific subject, based on information and free will.

The cases where personal data can be processed without explicit consent are as follows:

- Explicitly stipulated in the laws,
- It is necessary for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent is not legally valid,

- It is mandatory for the data controller to fulfil its legal obligation.
- It has been publicized by the data subject,
- Data processing is mandatory for the establishment, exercise or protection of a right,
- Data processing is mandatory for the legitimate interests of the data controller, provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject.

In Case Of Processing Of Special Categories Of Personal Data:

Efes sensitively complies with the regulations stipulated in the Law in the processing of personal data determined as 'special quality' by the Law.

In this context, in Article 6 of the Law, certain personal data that have the risk of causing victimization or discrimination when processed unlawfully are determined as 'special categories'. Special categories of personal data can be processed by Efes in accordance with the Law and provided that adequate measures to be determined by the Personal Data Protection Board ("Board") are taken in the following cases:

- If there is explicit consent of the personal data subject,
- If expressly provided for in the law,
- In the event that it is necessary for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent is not legally valid, or for the protection of the life or physical integrity of himself/herself or of another person,
- If it is related to the personal data made public by the data subject and in accordance with the will of the data subject to make it public,
- If it is mandatory for the establishment, use or protection of a right,
- If it is necessary for the protection of public health, preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, treatment and care services, planning, management and financing of health services by persons under the obligation to keep secrets or authorised institutions and organisations,
- If it is necessary for the fulfilment of legal obligations in the fields of employment, occupational health and safety, social security, social services and social assistance,
- In the case of foundations, associations and other non-profit organisations or formations established for political, philosophical, religious or trade union purposes, provided that they comply with the legislation to which they are subject and their purposes, are limited to their

6.3 Transfer of Personal Data to Third Parties

Transfer of Personal Data to Domestic Third Parties

In the event that one or more of the following data processing conditions exist, personal data may be transferred to third parties by our Company by taking all necessary security measures, including the methods stipulated by the Board.

- The data subject consents to the transfer of his/her personal data to third parties resident in the country,
- The relevant activities regarding the transfer of personal data are clearly stipulated in the laws,
- The transfer of personal data by the Company is directly related and necessary for the establishment or performance of a contract,
- The transfer of personal data is mandatory for our Company to fulfil its legal obligations,
- Transfer of personal data by our Company limited to the purpose of publicization, provided that the personal data has been made public by the data subject,
- The transfer of personal data by the Company is mandatory for the establishment, use or protection of the rights of the Company or the data subject or third parties,
- It is mandatory to carry out personal data transfer activity for the legitimate interests of the Company, provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the data subject,
- It is mandatory for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent is not legally valid.

Transfer of Personal Data to Third Parties Residing Abroad

The transfer of personal data abroad by our Company will be carried out in accordance with Article 9 of the Law and the principles set out in this Policy by taking technical and administrative measures in the direction described below:

(i) Transfer Based on the Adequacy Decision Made on the Relevant Country, International Organisation or Sectors within the Country

Personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company if one of the conditions specified in Articles 5 and 6 of the Law exists and if there is an adequacy decision issued by the Board regarding the country, international organisation or sectors within the country to which the transfer will be made.

The adequacy decision is issued by the Board and published in the Official Gazette. The Board may also take the opinion of relevant institutions and organisations if necessary. The adequacy decision is evaluated every four years at the latest. The Board may modify, suspend or revoke the adequacy decision with prospective effect as a result of the assessment or in other cases it deems necessary.

(ii) Transfer Based on Appropriate Safeguards

In the absence of an adequacy decision, personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company if one of the following appropriate safeguards is provided by the parties, provided that one of the personal data processing conditions specified in Articles 5 and 6 of the Law exists and the data subject has the opportunity to exercise his/her rights and to apply for effective legal remedies in the country where the transfer will be made:

- Special Transfer Reason for Public Institutions and Organisations or Professional Organisations of Public Nature: Existence of an agreement that is not in the nature of an international contract between public institutions and organisations or international organisations abroad and public institutions and organisations or professional organisations in the nature of a public institution in Turkey and the Board's permission for the transfer.
- Binding Corporate Rules: Existence of binding corporate rules approved by the Board and containing provisions on the protection of personal data, which the companies within the group of undertakings engaged in joint economic activities are obliged to comply with.
- Standard Contracts: Existence of a standard contract announced by the Board, including data categories, purposes of data transfer, recipients and recipient groups, technical and administrative measures to be taken by the data recipient, additional measures taken for special categories of personal data, and notifying the Board about this standard contract within the legal periods.
- Letter of Undertaking: Existence of a written letter of undertaking containing provisions to ensure adequate protection and authorisation of the transfer by the Board.

(iii) Transfer Based on Incidental Circumstances

Personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company in the absence of an adequacy decision and if one of the appropriate assurances cannot be provided, provided that it is incidental, in the presence of one of the following cases:

- Informed Special Explicit Consent for Possible Risks: The explicit consent of the data subject to the transfer, provided that the data subject is informed about the possible risks.
- Execution of the Contract and Implementation of Pre-Contractual Measures: The transfer is mandatory for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the data controller or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken upon the request of the data subject.
- Third Party Contracts for the Benefit of the Data Subject: The transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract between the controller and another natural or legal person for the benefit of the data subject.
- Necessity for a Superior Public Interest: The transfer is necessary for a superior public interest.
- Establishment, Exercise or Protection of Right: The transfer of personal data is mandatory for the establishment, exercise or protection of a right.
- Actual Impossibility: It is mandatory to transfer personal data for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the person or another person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent is not legally valid.

- Transfer from Public Registers: Transfer from a registry open to the public or persons with legitimate interests, provided that the conditions required to access the registry in the relevant legislation are met and the person with a legitimate interest requests it.

Transfer of Special Categories of Personal Data to Domestic Third Parties

As a rule, it is prohibited to transfer special categories of personal data. However, as Efes, special categories of personal data are processed in accordance with the principles set out in this Policy and in the presence of the following conditions specified in Article 6 of the Law:

(i) Explicit Consent of the data subject

One of the conditions for processing special categories of personal data is the explicit consent of the data subject. The explicit consent of the data subject must be related to a specific subject, based on information and with free will.

In the presence of the following special categories of personal data processing conditions, personal data may be processed without the explicit consent of the data subject:

(ii) Explicitly Stipulated by Laws

If the special categories of personal data of the data subject are explicitly stipulated in the law, in other words, if there is an explicit provision in the relevant law regarding the processing of special categories of personal data, this data processing condition may be mentioned.

(iii) Failure to Obtain Explicit Consent of the Data Subject Due to Actual Impossibility

The personal data of the data subject may be processed if it is mandatory to process the personal data of the data subject in order to protect the life or physical integrity of the data subject or another person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent cannot be validated.

(iv) Publicization of Special Categories of Personal Data of the data subject

In the event that the data subject has made his/her sensitive personal data public in accordance with his/her own will to make it public, the relevant special categories of personal data may be processed limited to the purpose of making it public.

(v) Data Processing is Mandatory for the Establishment or Protection of a Right

If data processing is mandatory for the establishment, exercise or protection of a right, the special categories of personal data of the data subject may be processed.

(vi) Processing is Necessary within the Scope of Relevant Purposes by Persons Under Confidentiality Obligation or Authorised Institutions and Organisations

Special categories of personal data of the data subject may be processed by persons under the obligation of confidentiality or authorised institutions and organisations, if necessary for the protection of public health, preventive medicine, medical diagnosis, treatment and care services, and the planning, management and financing of health services.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION AND PROCESSING POLICY OF ANADOLU EFES BİRACILIK VE MALT SANAYİİ A.Ş.

(vii) Processing for the Fulfilment of Legal Obligations Regarding Employment, Occupational Health and Safety, Social Security, Social Services and Social Assistance

In the event that it is mandatory to fulfil legal obligations in the fields of employment, occupational health and safety, social security, social services and social assistance, the special categories of personal data of the data subject may be processed.

(viii) Processing Regarding Foundations, Associations and Other Non-Profit Organisations or Formations Established for Political, Philosophical, Religious or Trade Union Purposes

Foundations, associations and other non-profit organisations or formations established for political, philosophical, religious or trade union purposes; provided that they comply with the legislation to which they are subject and their purposes, are limited to their fields of activity and are not disclosed to third parties; may process special categories of personal data of the data subject for their current or former members and members or persons who are in regular contact with these organisations and formations.

Transfer of Special Categories of Personal Data to Third Parties Residing Abroad

The transfer of special categories of personal data abroad by our Company will be carried out in accordance with Article 9 of the Law and the principles set out in this Policy, by taking technical and administrative measures in the direction described below:

(i) Transfer Based on the Adequacy Decision Made on the Relevant Country, International Organisation or Sectors within the Country

Personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company if one of the conditions specified in Articles 5 and 6 of the Law exists and if there is an adequacy decision issued by the Board regarding the country, international organisation or sectors within the country to which the transfer will be made.

The adequacy decision is issued by the Board and published in the Official Gazette. The Board may also take the opinion of relevant institutions and organisations if necessary. The adequacy decision is evaluated every four years at the latest. The Board may modify, suspend or revoke the adequacy decision with prospective effect as a result of the assessment or in other cases it deems necessary.

(ii) Transfer Based on Appropriate Safeguards

In the absence of an adequacy decision, personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company if one of the following appropriate safeguards is provided by the parties, provided that one of the personal data processing conditions specified in Articles 5 and 6 of the Law exists and the person concerned has the opportunity to exercise his rights and apply for effective legal remedies in the country where the transfer will be made:

- Special Transfer Reason for Public Institutions and Organisations or Professional Organisations of Public Nature: Existence of an agreement that is not in the nature of an international contract between public institutions and organisations or international organisations abroad and public institutions and organisations or professional organisations in the nature of a public institution in Turkey and the Board's permission for the transfer.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION AND PROCESSING POLICY OF ANADOLU EFES BİRACILIK VE MALT SANAYİİ A.Ş.

- Binding Corporate Rules: Existence of binding corporate rules approved by the Board and containing provisions on the protection of personal data, which the companies within the group of undertakings engaged in joint economic activities are obliged to comply with.
- Standard Contracts: Existence of a standard contract announced by the Board, including data categories, purposes of data transfer, recipients and recipient groups, technical and administrative measures to be taken by the data recipient, additional measures taken for special categories of personal data, and notifying the Board about this standard contract within the legal periods.
- Letter of Undertaking: Existence of a written letter of undertaking containing provisions to ensure adequate protection and authorisation of the transfer by the Board.

(iii) Transfer Based on Incidental Circumstances

Personal data may be transferred abroad by the Company in the absence of an adequacy decision and if one of the appropriate assurances cannot be provided, provided that it is incidental, in the presence of one of the following cases:

- Informed Special Explicit Consent for Possible Risks: The explicit consent of the data subject to the transfer, provided that the data subject is informed about the possible risks.
- Execution of the Contract and Implementation of Pre-Contractual Measures: The transfer is mandatory for the performance of a contract between the data subject and the data controller or for the implementation of pre-contractual measures taken upon the request of the data subject.
- Third Party Contracts for the Benefit of the Data Subject: The transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract between the controller and another natural or legal person for the benefit of the data subject.
- Necessity for a Superior Public Interest: The transfer is necessary for a superior public interest.
- Establishment, Exercise or Protection of Right: The transfer of personal data is mandatory for the establishment, exercise or protection of a right.
- Actual Impossibility: It is mandatory to transfer personal data for the protection of the life or physical integrity of the person or another person who is unable to disclose his/her consent due to actual impossibility or whose consent is not legally valid.
- Transfer from Public Registers: Transfer from a registry open to the public or persons with legitimate interest, provided that the conditions required to access the registry in the relevant legislation are met and the person with legitimate interest requests it.
